

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to let you know that I strongly support an open internet and Title II regulation of ISPs. It will be absolutely devastating to the ease of access to information of every type if these protections are not preserved. It would go against everything Tim Berners-Lee stood for. Thank you for your attention and understanding.

Very Respectfully,

Evan Boucher